

59. Psalm 49 Ever Live

040407

C+ F6 C+ F6 C+

Both high and low, both poor and rich, My mouth shall
 The weal - thy fail, the wise one dies, The cruel and Though while man lives, while he's a - live, He'll gain the

6 F6 C+ F6 Gm7C Gm7C

 speak to who-so - ev - er hears its pitch, Of wis-dom's depth, of hearts so full, I will in-fool - ish per - ish quick-ly in their lies. They call their lands by their own names, But such im-goods and stuffs to see that he sur - vives. He'll praise him - self, he'll be con - tent, He'll count his

10 Gm7 C F6 Cm7F Cm7F

- cline my ear to hear a par - a - ble. I'll light the dark, Make dul-ness sharp, To un - der-
 - perm - a-nence of place is just a game. When morn-ing comes and all are gone, I will be bles-sings ev - 'ry time he counts the rent. But when he goes though so un - kind, The coins and

14 Cm7 F7 Bb6 Gm7C Gm7C

- stand dark say-ings ut-tered by my harp. I'll sing of fear, I'll sing of doubt; Of when in-sing - ing in the pas-ture this my song! For El - o - him re-deems my soul. Un - like the con-crete he will have to leave be - hind. So like the rest, with - out a fight, He will des-

18 Gm7 Bb/C C7 F6 F7

- i - qui - ty en-com-pass'd me a - bout. Why should I fear when the days are so e - vil?
 rich he'll res-cue me from dark She - ol! Why should I fear when the o - ther folks stum-ble?
 - cend in - to the black e - ter - nal night. Why should I fear when the pom-pous man pass - es?

22 Bb9 BbMaj7 Bbm |1. Gm7/C

My beau-ty shines! Oth - ers may boast in their gold and their peo - ple; Bet-ter than rich-es,
 I love his name! I seek his ways and I try to be hum-ble.
 My goods i give! Why should I fear dark She - ol with the mas-ses?

27 C7 |2. C Db6 |3. C Bbm C Gm7/CC+ F6

right-eous-ness is mine!
 I make that claim!
 I'll ev-er live, We'll ev - er live!